The 57th Grand National Roadster Show

What can you say about the 2006 version of the Grand National Roadster Show, coming to the Fairplex in Pomona January 20th-22nd? Take a deep breath... and read along!

In the America's Most Beautiful Roadster (AMBR) class, you'll see Ken Reister's newly-built (by Chip Foose) '36 Ford Phantom Roadster. It'll be joined by the latest creation by Tommy Otis, Gil Losi's new Boyd Coddington-built

Will the '06 winner of America's Most Beautiful Roadster be a stunner like the Moal-built "Seduced" was last year? Go to the 57th Annual Grand National Roadster Show and see for yourself!

roadster and other spectacular rods vying for top honors—including getting their names on the 9½-foot-tall AMBR trophy. Other must-see show cars coming to this year's GNRS include Roy Brizio's array of six cars, along with creations by Steve Moal and Rick Dore. The new tradition of the World's Most Beautiful Motorcycle continues in '06, with a cash prize of $3,000 for the winner.

You'll also see four new Overhauled and Rides episode cars making their GNRS debuts, including the latest Magnum that Chip Foose and Killer Paint owner Mike Lavallee did on Overhauled this past fall. Speaking of Lavallee, not only will he have some of his own creations on hand—including the newly-painted GNRS statues—but he'll join rod and Kustom legends like George Barris, Gene Winfield and "The Big Swag" (the voice of Discovery Channel's Monster Garage and host of Monster Radio) in signing autographs and meeting with show-goers. Chip Foose will also sign autographs on Sunday, and present his Foose Design Award (one that's as sought-after as any other GNRS award).

But that's not all. There's a sixth Fairplex building in the show this year—the "Suede Palace," where you'll see "traditional" rods and "Suede Kustoms". You'll also see "the Club House," dedicated to Southern California Car Clubs, which will include the "1320 Nostalgia Dragster Club" among its club displays! There'll also be a "Pin Stripping Reunion," a huge model-car contest, and Extreme Automotive will fire up their Coupe (outside) hourly—shooting flames and rocking the grounds. There'll also be the first-ever GNRS "Drive In" on Saturday, where the first 350 cars to pre-register will be able to park between the buildings inside the event, and celebrate hot rodding with music and magazine picks at 4 p.m. Music-wise, The Hot Rod Trio (a Southern California rock-a-billy band) will perform in the Suede Palace on Friday and Saturday nights, Ronnie and the Classics will perform on the main stage on Friday and Sunday, and The Surfing Safari's will take the stage on Saturday.

Also, SO-CAL Speed Shop will open their doors for show entrants on Saturday morning from 8-10, serving the Breakfast of Champions, selling merchandise and having autograph sessions of their own. (Call SO-CAL at (909) 469-6171 for details.)
